Luxury is not defined by abundance, but by the exclusivity of experiencing nature's true essence.

About Zambia

From the majestic Victoria Falls to the remote wilderness of South Luangwa National Park, Zambia is a land of unmatched beauty where Nature, Wildlife and local Culture come together to gift visitors with unforgettable experiences

Still being a niche tourism destination, Zambia remains one of the most uncontaminated Countries of the Southern Africa region, from both a Natural and Cultural perspective: thanks to the scarce presence of tourists and the extraordinary abundance of wildlife, Zambia is generally considered to be the best Safari destination in Africa.

Its National Parks are still largely wild and unexplored allowing visitors to live unforgettable experiences in direct contact with nature: Zambia is the country that offers the widest range of game-viewing activities such as game drives, walking safaris, night drives, motorcycle safaris, canoe and boat safaris, horseback adventures, and many more. It's also considered heaven for leopards lovers and birdwatchers, due to their abundances and ease of sighting.

From a cultural standpoint, Zambian population is very open and friendly and this country offers genuine local interactions (including some spectacular tribal celebrations patronised by UNESCO as masterpieces of Oral Tradition), without exposing the visitors to risks or hassles.

Zambia is a very vast Country: travelling by road between National Parks and other destinations can involve very long transfers, and some of the roads' conditions can take a toll on even the best vehicles: an overland Zambia Safari must always be faced with a sense of adventure. Fortunately, domestic flights are also popular, reliable and convenient, offering visitors an additional option to perfectly tailor their experiences to their expectations.

Mobile Safaris

Our Mobile Safaris are carefully crafted as a contemporary interpretation of the early explorers' expeditions.

The first explorers and adventurers ever to travel through these parts of Africa found themselves immersed in a world of awe and excitement that changed their lives forever.

Even when crossing the wildest terrains and coming in contact with unfamiliar cultures, they could always rely on an impeccable organisation, excellent local guides and all the comforts provided by their modern society. They knew it was a once-in-a-lifetime experience and a privilege to witness such such wonderments and return home with a bag full of fantastic memories.

They taught us that "luxury" is not an end in itself, but rather a tool to enjoy the exclusivity of the experience and the overwhelming feeling of being surrounded by kilometres of unexplored bush teeming with wildlife.

In today's world, there's nothing more precious than time. "Luxury", therefore, becomes the slow pace of a campfire under a million stars, sipping a drink while enjoying the sounds of the untamed wilderness, with the certainty that every aspect of your adventure is carefully taken care of by experienced professionals who understand that the "Art of Safari" relies on seamlessly blending the right amount of luxury, with the rusticity of the African bush.

Wherever possible, our Mobile Safaris can provide two different – but equally exciting - experiences: "Rustic" (entirely overland, camping) and "Adventure with Style" (integrating domestic flights, exclusive lodges and bush-camps, and multiple destinations within each park).

Each of our Itineraries is meticulously crafted to ensure guests can experience the best Zambia has to offer under all points of view: wildlife, landmarks, culture and travel experiences.

Days 8-9: North Luangwa National Park (Travel distance: 200km / 5-6 hr – Bush Trails)

Early breakfast and departure for a transfer through the whole North Luangwa National Park. After 60km of tarmac road, we will enter the Muchinga escarpment bush and proceed down the mountains to the North Luangwa National Park.

This remote tract of land, covering 4636 square kilometres, offers one of the finest wilderness experiences in Zambia, if not Africa itself. It is not open to the public and there are no permanent lodges there. Access is with one of the few safari operators granted permission to conduct walking safaris.

The beauty of visiting this Park is the truly remarkable opportunities to experience Africa as it was. It is wild and untouched and you are simply an unobtrusive witness to its natural beauty and drama. Although declared a wilderness area, the North Park, was not open to anyone other than Game Department rangers for more than thirty years. In 1984, Major John Harvey and his wife Lorna sought permission to conduct walking safaris in the area and for many years were the only operators in this remote wilderness.

Then in 1989, two scientists, Mark and Delia Owens, famous for their book 'Cry of the Kalahari', were granted permission to set up a research station in the Park. Through their influence and as a means of helping to curb poaching in the area, the authorities allowed entry to a few more safari operators who bring limited numbers into the Park for guided walking safaris and game drives. Their efforts in the North Luangwa are documented in their book 'Survivors Song / The Eye of the Elephant'.

There are very few roads and you are unlikely to see anyone else for the duration of your trip. Like the South Park, it lies on the western bank of the Luangwa River bordered on the other side by the dramatic Muchinga Escarpment which rises over 1000 meters from the valley floor. Its hazy outline can clearly be seen from the Luangwa River.

There are a number of tributary rivers running through the Park and into the Luangwa which play an important ecological role in the area. The crystal-clear Mwaleshi River trickles down the escarpment in a series of small waterfalls. It recedes in the dry season, leaving many pools along the way, drawing the animals from the bush to its banks in search of water. No game drives are permitted in the Mwaleshi area, and access is by organized walking safaris only. The vegetation ranges from mopane woodland to riverine forest, open grasslands and acacia thicket. Trees include the beautiful sausage tree, vegetable ivory palms, red mahogany and leadwood.

Pic nic lunch along the Luangwa river before proceeding through the National park to the Southern Gate.

After crossing the Luangwa River, we will set up camp in a scenic campsite on the river shores and spend a Night camping.

On our second day, you will enjoy 2 spectacular Walking safari in the national park.

All meals prepared by our accompanying chef and night lodging.

Day 10 – North Luangwa National Park – Luambe National Park – South Luangwa National Park (Travel distance: 220km / 10 hr – Bush Trails)

Early wake and sunrise breakfast before starting off towards South Luangwa National Park crossing the entire Luangwa Valley and Luambe National Park.

The distance, although only 240km, is likely to take the whole day due to the roughness of the road conditions and the chances to spot wildlife along the way.

At just 254 km², Luambe is one of Zambia's smallest national parks. Situated on the eastern bank of the Luangwa it lies in the heart of the Luangwa valley between Lukusuzi, North and South Luangwa national parks. The park was declared in 1938 and is therefore one of the oldest conservation areas in Zambia.

The wildlife found in Luambe is similar to that of its larger neighbouring parks and includes all the typical large herbivores, carnivores as well as some less well-known species. However, the animals of Luambe are generally present at lower densities than in the bigger parks with the advantage that Luambe is less crowded than its more famous neighbours.

Habitat diversity in Luambe National Park is enormous and within a few kilometres the vegetation ranges from riverine forest, cathedral mopane woodland, floodplain acacia thickets to the sausage tree-dotted open grasslands of the Chipuka plains.

There are over 200 species of bird in Luambe and elephant populations as well as those of lion and leopard are said to be on the increase – so it's well worth visiting now before everyone else catches on.

You will stop for a pic-nic lunch inside Luambe National Park before proceeding further South and reaching the Nsefu Sector of South Luangwa National Park for yet more opportunities for excellent game viewing.

We plan to arrive to Mfuwe before sunset and check-in at Thornicroft Lodge where you will spend three nights in a permanent Safari tent (non en-suite), located in an area fully equipped with ablutions and hot showers. All meals prepared by the accompanying cook and all game viewing activities done by our resident guides on board of our vehicles

Dinner prepared by your accompanying chef. B/L/D

Days 3: South Luangwa National Park (Nsefu sector) - Luambe National Park

Early breakfast and departure for Luambe National Park, crossing the Nsefu sector of the South Luangwa National Park en-route. At just 254 km², Luambe is one of Zambia's smallest national parks. Situated on the eastern bank of the Luangwa it lies in the heart of the Luangwa valley between Lukusuzi, North and South Luangwa national parks. The park was declared in 1938 and is therefore one of the oldest conservation areas in Zambia.

The wildlife found in Luambe is similar to that of its larger neighbouring parks and includes all the typical large herbivores, carnivores as well as some less wellknown species. However, the animals of Luambe are generally present at lower densities than in the bigger parks with the advantage that Luambe is less crowded than its more famous neighbours.

Habitat diversity in Luambe National Park is enormous and within a few kilometres the vegetation ranges from riverine forest, cathedral mopane woodland, floodplain acacia thickets to the sausage tree-dotted open grasslands of the Chipuka plains. There are over 200 species of bird in Luambe and elephant populations as well as those of lion and leopard are said to be on the increase – so it's well worth visiting now before everyone else catches on. You will set camp at Luambe Community Campsite and enjoy an afternoon Game Drive in the park.

Day 4: Luambe National Park – North Luangwa National Park

Early wake and sunrise breakfast with hot beverages and toasts/biscuits before starting off for a Game drive in Luambe National Park. Return to camp around 10,00 and brunch, followed by a transfer to North Luangwa National Park.

This remote tract of land, covering 4636 square kilometres, offers one of the finest wilderness experiences in Zambia, if not Africa itself. It is not open to the public and there are no permanent lodges there. Access is with one of the few safari operators granted permission to conduct walking safaris.

The beauty of visiting this Park is the truly remarkable opportunities to experience Africa as it was. It is wild and untouched and you are simply an unobtrusive witness to its natural beauty and drama. Although declared a wilderness area, the North Park, was not open to anyone other than Game Department rangers for more than thirty years. In 1984, Major John Harvey and his wife Lorna sought permission to conduct walking safaris in the area and for many years were the only operators in this remote wilderness.

Then in 1989, two scientists, Mark and Delia Owens, famous for their book 'Cry of the Kalahari', were granted permission to set up a research station in the Park. Through their influence and as a means of helping to curb poaching in the area, the authorities allowed entry to a few more safari operators who bring limited numbers into the Park for guided walking safaris and game drives. Their efforts in the North Luangwa are documented in their book 'Survivors Song / The Eye of the Elephant'.

There are very few roads and you are unlikely to see anyone else for the duration of your trip. Like the South Park, it lies on the western bank of the Luangwa River bordered on the other side by the dramatic Muchinga Escarpment which rises over 1000 meters from the valley floor. Its hazy outline can clearly be seen from the Luangwa River.

There are a number of tributary rivers running through the Park and into the Luangwa which play an important ecological role in the area. The crystal-clear Mwaleshi River trickles down the escarpment in a series of small waterfalls. It recedes in the dry season, leaving many pools along the way, drawing the animals from the bush to its banks in search of water. No game drives are permitted in the Mwaleshi area, and access is by organized walking safaris only.

The vegetation ranges from mopane woodland to riverine forest, open grasslands and acacia thicket. Trees include the beautiful sausage tree, vegetable ivory palms, red mahogany and leadwood.

You will reach Chifunda Campsite before sunset and set camp for the night in a fantastic spot overlooking the Luangwa River, in a community campsite equipped with toilets and showers.

Dinner around the fire prepared by your accompanying chef and night camping. B/L/D

Day 5: North Luangwa National Park

Cultural Expeditions

"Likumbi Lya Mize"

The Ceremony:

The Likumbi Lya Mize has been declared "Masterpiece of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity" by UNESCO in 2005. It's the final and most exciting part of mukanda, an initiation ritual for boys between the ages of eight and twelve. This ritual is celebrated by the Vaka Chinyama Cha Mukwamayi communities, to which the Luvale, Chokwe, Luchazi and Mbunda people belong who live in the northwestern and western provinces of Zambia. Come with us and discover an incredible Cultural Experience, that only a small number of persons outside the Luvale tribe have had the honour and privilege to see. The ceremony actually starts about 1 to 3 months before, when young children are taken away from their village to symbolise their "death" as children, tundanji, who do not belong to the world of the living. The mukanda involves the circumcision of the initiates, tests of courage and lessons on their future role as men and husbands. Each initiate is assigned a specific masked character, who is with him throughout the entire process. These characters include Chisaluke, who represents a powerful and wealthy man with spiritual influence; the Mupala, the "lord" of the mukanda and protective spirit with supernatural abilities; Pwevo, a female character who represents the ideal woman and is responsible for the musical accompaniment of the rituals and dances. The Makishi is another masked character, representing the spirit of a deceased ancestor who returns to the world of the living to assist the boys. The end of the mukanda is celebrated with a graduation ceremony called chilende. The whole village attends the Makishi dance and the audience is entertined with pantomime-like artistry until the graduates re-emerge from the camp and are reintegrated as adult men into their communities. This ritual has an educational function of transmitting practical survival-skills as well as knowledge about nature, sexuality, religious beliefs and the social values of the community. Our Tour will take you in the heart of one of the most authentic

At sunset, they will gather along the shores of the Zambezi river and cross by boat on the other side, symbolising the crossing of the passage from the world of the dead to the world of the living. In the afternoon, the celebrations of Likumbi Lya Mize will take place outside the royal palace. At Sunset, return to the guesthouse.

The Ceremony:

The Kulamba Ceremony takes place at the end of August and is a moment when all the subordinate Chiefs of the Chewa people, currently spread between Zambia, Malawi and Mozambique, meet in Mkaika to pay homage to the Paramount chief Kalonga Gawa Undi and celebrate the history and culture of the Chewa.

The ceremony was banned by the colonial masters in 1934 but paramount chief Kalonga Gawa Undi Chivunga revived the ceremony in 1984. Since then, it has been an annual event. On the day of the ceremony, the centre of attraction is the main area where all the dignitaries are seated. Visitors from Zambia and Chewas from neighbouring Malawi and Mozambique are entertained to a variety of dances that are from three countries.

A variety of dances like Gule Wamukulu (Nyau), Gologolo, Makanja, Muganda, Chinamwali, Chimtali (the female dance) and many others are performed during the ceremony. The Nyau or popularly known as the Gule Wamukulu among locals, is the most celebrated dance among the Chewa people.

The Nyau dance (Gule Wamukulu) was officially recognised by UNESCO in 2006. Nyau dancers are referred to as Vilombo (animals) in Chewa, believed to emanate from dead spirits. There are a lot of Nyau dances at any ceremony. The type of the dance depends to a larger extent on the nature of the occasion. More than 30 different Nyau dances are performed at a single festival with each dancer adorning a different mask in an array of colours.

Some of the Nyau masks are a reflection of human behaviour in true life. The people can tell the type of Nyau entertaining them through its dress or mask. Some Nyau are frightening while others are fun.

Also part of the Kulamba ceremony is an annual initiation ceremony for the young girls who have come of age. The Anamwali or young girls have been in confinement where they have spent time being taught skills and responsibilities of womanhood.

Kulamba traditional ceremony brings together chiefs from 137 chiefdoms in Malawi, 33 in Mozambique and 42 in Zambia. The significance of this is its ability to bring Chewa under different chiefdoms and countries to Mkaika, capital of the Chewa and palace of paramount chief Kalonga Gawa Undi, to celebrate these festivals together regardless of today's political boundaries
